ORDER:

The following amendments to the Police Standing Order, Volume I are approved.

AMENDMENT.

POLICE STANDING ORDER BOOK, VOLUME I PAGE 33, ORDER 77.

For the existing order, the following shall be substituted, namely:-

"Punishment after conviction".

77 (1) A Police Officer, convicted of an offence involving ~~normal~~ moral turpitude and sentenced to imprisonment, shall ordinarily be dismissed unless he is retained in service with the special orders of the Inspector General of Police. In cases where a Police Officer is convicted and sentenced to imprisonment for an offence not involving moral turpitude, he may be compulsorily retired from service by the competent authority.

(2) A Police Officer sentenced to fine only need not be dismissed or compulsorily retired. The authority competent to pass an order of dismissal shall decide whether he deserves dismissal or compulsory retirement or any other lines punishment and act accordingly.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (1) and (2) the punishment to be awarded to a Police Officer in respect of his first conviction for an offence under section 4, 4A, 5 or 7 of the Madras Prohibition Act, 1937 shall be decided on the merits of each case by the authority competent to pass an order of dismissal and a Police Officer convicted for the second time for an offence under section 4, 4A, 5 or 7 of thesaid Act shall be dismissed from service.

(4) An order of dismissal or compulsory retirement shall not be passed until the conviction has beenfinally upheld on appeal, or the time allowed for appeal has expired"
